

RED IS A FAVORITE

But Every Variety of Color Is Now Worn

BY THE SWEET SUMMER GIRL

Bathing Suits Now Have Longer Skirts and the New Suits Also Have Longer Sleeves.

When it comes to a matter of color the summer toilers take precedence. It is impossible to say what color rules or what color is the favorite, for every possible color is shown in light and becoming gowns for summer wear. The girl, who dyes, robes herself in blazing red from neck to toe. Her gloves are red, her hat is red, her shoes are red and a red parasol trimmed with yards and yards of chiffon waves triumphantly over the entire combination. The craze for white this season is as far reaching as the craze for red and stops at nothing short of shoes. A suit of white flannel with a white hat, white chambray gloves, white canvas shoes and a white parasol is quite as astonishing as anything seen this season. With this white suit white silk underwear and white silk hose are worn. Gray has never been a more popular color than now and exquisite creations are seen in the new shades of color. It used to be relegated to the older women and is supposed to be suitable only for gray hair. While the combination of gray hair and a gray gown is very effective, still a bright young face looks doubly radiant above the soft shades of gray, subdued in tint, yet suggesting all that is bright and fair. Gray summer gowns may be effectively combined with white, and one of the prettiest seen this season was of gray chambray trimmed with white velvet ribbon around the full bell skirt. There was a soft wash of the velvet and the front of the bodice was overlaid with snowy chiffon combined with the velvet. The inevitable white chiffon parasol completed this suit with white chambray gloves.

Bathing suits are seasonable topics and deserve consideration from everybody that contemplates a trip to lake or ocean beach. In these garments bright colors create diversion for the onlookers, but the black flannel suits trimmed with white braid, either wide or narrow, are prettier and more becoming than any other. The tendency is to longer skirts and nearly all the new suits have long sleeves, a fact appreciated by those who desire to protect their arms from the ravages of the hot sun.

Bright's Disease of the Kidneys.

Will Pe-run-a cure Bright's Disease of the Kidneys? The best answer to this question that can be made is the testimony of the thousands of patients who have been cured by it. A single demonstration of a fact is worth many theories concerning it. The following letter is a specimen of what we are receiving from this class of patients.

(Dallas, Texas, July 18, 1921.)

The Pe-run-a Drug Manufacturing company, Columbus, Ohio—Gents: As my medicine has done me so much good I thought I would write to you and tell you about it. You can publish it as you like. I bought eighteen bottles of Pe-run-a and Man-a-lin. I had Bright's disease and gravel. I owe my life to Pe-run-a and Man-a-lin. I would not have lived a month longer if it had not been for your medicine.

Yours truly,

H. J. McCollough.

All persons desiring further details as to the above cure are requested to write Mr. McCollough, who will cheerfully answer all letters of inquiry. There is no form of kidney or urinary disease for which Pe-run-a is not a reliable remedy. Gravel, distention of the bladder, diabetes, peevishness or weakness in the back or hips, drooping, puffiness of the face or feet, smarting, scalding, or scantiness are all curable by Pe-run-a. This remedy can be obtained at most drug stores. In all cases where there is also constipation or irregularity of the bowels Man-a-lin should be taken in addition to Pe-run-a.

The Grand Canon of the Colorado river, in Arizona, is now for the first time easily accessible to tourists. A regular stage line has been established from Flagstaff, Arizona, on the Atlantic & Pacific railroad, making the trip from Flagstaff to the most imposing part of the canon in less than twelve hours. The stage fare is a round trip is only $20, and meals and comfortable lodgings are provided throughout the trip at a reasonable price. The view of the Grand Canon afforded at the terminus of the stage route is the most stupendous panorama known in nature. There is also a trail at this point leading down the Canon wall, more than 6,000 feet vertically, to the river below. The descent of the trail is a grander experience than climbing the Alps, for in the bottom of this terrific and sublime chasm are hundreds of mountains greater than any of the Alpine range.

A book describing the trip to the Grand Canon, illustrated by many full-page engravings from special photographs, and furnishing all useful information, may be obtained free upon application to John J. Byrne, No. 723 Montadock block, Chicago, Ill.

THEY DIDN'T KNOW IT.

Valuable Clay Deposits Discovered at Kettle Falls.

Western people are as a rule so busy looking for gold that they sometimes neglect to look for other things less glittering, but quite as substantial.

The citizens of Kettle Falls have found at their very door a deposit of the finest clay. Experts say that it is of the quality used in making bisque ware, and can of course be used in ordinary pottery and stone ware.

This of course means a new industry at Kettle Falls, and a rise in real estate values.

A sample of the clay has been recovered by G. H. Smith and can be seen at No. 1 Canal street.

The pleasantest and quickest way to get to Kettle Falls is via Michigan, Wisconsin Central and Northern Pacific routes.

Mr. Smith says that the people are manifesting an interest in the town far beyond his expectation.
